Subject: Art of Living : Campus visit for interactive session

Art of Living Fellowship Program. The program is aims to engage bright youth from across the country and abroad in various social projects in areas of Water resources conservation, integrated natural resources management, integrated village development, WASH, education and sustainable agriculture.

The Art of Living Social Projects are unique in providing focused capacity building, mentorship and technical support to the rural elected representatives and community. This empowers them to participate effectively in driving grassroots social change.

Along with this community centered development approach, we also invite bright urban and rural youth to engage in these projects. Our projects run with the help of a central team and the field team. The role of the central team is program design, documentations, monitoring and evaluation, impact assessment, policy advocacy, mass outreach strategy and donor engagement. The field team is involved in the execution of the projects, liaison with government officials, community sensitisation and mobilisation and ensuring community ownership for sustainability of our projects.

As an Art of Living Fellow, they will be engaged in working for both these kind of roles. The stage is set for you to take charge and catalyze change with the support of this expansive community of passionate change makers.

Attachments: Introduction to PRO India.pdf

Dear Students,

Pro India Recycling will be visiting TERI SAS campus on Wednesday, Nov 6, 2019 1:45-2:45 PM for an interactive session with students regarding possible internship opportunities with the students. PFB a brief about the speaker, Mr. Amit Saha along with their area of work.

Students who are interested to attend the session should register on the following link:

<https://forms.office.com/Pages/ResponsePage.aspx?id=N7QUVKPdEECJlaMtB8V7I3wg8rPt2tRNqCI7kJwEiCFUQUNHREg1WDg4SIA1NjhaMFZXUkNINUpIRS4u>

We are requesting students of TERI University in this Sustainable Journey to Build Clean programs'. These leaders need to build Swatchh Bharat !

Pro India has multiple opportunities for students of TERI University . Pro India is a StartUp the space of Sustainability & Social Change

- a) We offer Start Up Challenge - We are in the second year since inception. How do opportunities and create business models ! What would be reverse logistics to bring back pouches
- b) We offer serious technical & real challenges to be solved - How to create Plastics that be converted into fuels ? Are there new plastics which can compost ? etc
- c) We Offer Social Challenge - How to really improve livelihoods of a waste picker - a man ! to live as much as us ! (they live 17 years less than you and me) and not remain in the financial economy ?
- d) We offer Serious Regulation and Advocacy Challenge - What is Single Use Plastics (in FMCG products that we consume) not single use. Are we jumping the gun when it currently
- e) We offer behavior challenge on Citizen Apathy to Waste - Do Indian care about waste and the Human Affect of our Consumption and Littering ? Is this similar to 'Open Defecation Andolan. How can programs be made to sensitize the citizens about 'not to litter' in Swat. Can we create Behavior Economic Models ? Can Citizen create 'Jan Andolan' how to create

I would request TERI University to consider the above challenges as the Nation Building University who could solve the challenge. Pro India would provide a platform for the students become 'wholesome leaders of tomorrow' encompassing values of social good.

We would invite applications from students who would like to undertake short term engagement. A good place to start would be an 'Internship'. We would also request you to consider us

My name is Amit Saha. I was Chief Sustainability Officer for Coca - Cola - India & South Asia for 30 years (5 with Eicher , 5 with Gillette and 20 long years with Coke!) I realized my contribution to the Environment Day - 2018, I created PRO India, with a mission to bring all littered plastics into a circular economy.

It's a huge challenge that we have undertaken. The challenge of cleaning India from the litter and plastic waste from them. With a belief that used and consumed plastics is not waste but misplaced resource in a Circular Economy. And most importantly the belief that all human beings are equal and that the bottom 3% of Indian population) should not be left marginalized but mainstreamed into poverty.

Plastics Pollution Problem cannot be solved by one company, even a consortium. Or government regulators. It would need every stakeholder to own the issue and then see what the real opportunities and commercial benefits in creating circular economies, that could benefit all and most importantly the bottom of the pyramid and deserving to live a better & dignified life.

--- IS HERE---

To bring back all littered plastics...make India clean

To create & share the value from recycling plastic

To Create Behaviour Change through Students with execution led program

INTERNATIONAL REGULATORY STANDARDS

- Carbon offset requires a stock offset projects and issue offset credits for each unit of emission reduction or removal that is verified and certified.
- Registries are set in national or credible offset commodity. Registries record the ownership of credits.
- Registries reduce the risk of double counting and ensure that the social and environmental benefits are incorporated with the emission reductions.
- There are several International Regulatory Standards that can validate a carbon program. VNV works predominantly with the following standards:

Gold Standard, VERRA
