

Course title: Contracts law and management
Course code: MPL 144	No. of credits: 2	L-T-P distribution: 26-2-0	Learning hours: 28
Pre-requisite course code and title (if any): None
Department:	Centre for Postgraduate Legal Studies, Department of Policy & Legal Studies
Course coordinator: Dr Manini Syali	Course instructor: Dr Manini Syali
Contact details: manini.syali@terisas.ac.in
Course type	Elective
Course offered in	Semester 2
Course Description
Contract gives the foundation of infrastructure projects. This course provides an advanced understanding of contract laws with respect to the infrastructure projects. Students will be exposed to foundations of contractual liability. The course will look into specific infrastructure contracts to get an understanding as to how different industries work. Infrastructure contracts of big projects need proper contract management. Students will be given an in depth understanding of contract management and the various processes attached with it. The course will go into professional understanding of possible conflict scenarios in project cycle and conflict resolution through case studies. The course taught through various case studies expose students to various sets of contract laws in infrastructure business.
Course objectives
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To provide an advanced understanding of contract law and its implications. 2. To analyse specific types of infrastructure contracts and its various forms. 3. To understand contract management and dispute resolution 			